INVITATION TO NEW MEMBERS. We welcome friends and visitors at worship this morning. GOD'S PEOPLE HERE: Tim Smith, son of Kit and Nancy Smith, recently suffered a pulmonary embolism; he returned home last Tuesday from the hospital and is recovering well... Thank you to florist, Nancy Gorkin, for supplying the flowers and plantings for worship this morning and to interior designer, Courtney Kleeman, for their arrangement in the Sanctuary.

HELP NEEDED. Many of you have met Kate Kennedy who has been attending WPC the past year plus. She is a caregiver for a woman who lives in Wilton at Avalon Springs. Kate lives with her. Kate is from Ghana where her husband and most of her family live and she does visit them from time to time. Kate would like to attend WPC on many Sundays. She knows by Tuesday or Wednesday of each week whether she will be able to attend our church. By the way, Kate is a delightful woman!!! Frank and I attend choir rehearsals most Sunday mornings so cannot pick Kate up but usually are able to drive her home. Would you be willing to be available a FEW Sundays this year to drive Kate TO church? The process includes my gathering names and dates a few weeks in advance and then notifying you early in "your" week(s) confirming whether Kate is able to attend. Please call or Email me if you are interested in helping. Thank you! Judy Mabley (jmabley@optonline.net or 203-762-9584).

CAN YOU HELP A NEEDY NEIGHBOR? Saturday, May 2, 2009 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM. AmeriCares HomeFront assists area homeowners with household repairs. We clean up the house and yard, perform light carpentry, paint, plant and lift the spirits of our neighbor in need. No skills are required. Some of you have wanted to go on one of our seven Katrina trips, but couldn't take the time off. This is an opportunity to do the same type of work in our own backyard. Our house this year is in east Norwalk. If you can't make it for a full day, a half day would be great. There is a sign-up sheet in the Gathering Space. Please help us with this hands-on volunteer effort if you can. I guarantee you that you'll feel good at the end of the day. Contact Sonny Kern at 834-7654 or Linda Rost at 858-9596 for more information.
