THANDA ZUZU JEWELRY
DURING COFFEE HOURE
FOLLOWING MORING WORSHIP
in The Lounge

Handmade by previously unemployed women in rural KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa, Thanda Zulu jewelry enables women to support their families, while creating pride in their work and hope for their communities. In rural South Africa poverty and HIV/AIDS are leaving millions of children without adequate care and support. Thanda Zulu creates valuable jobs, which allow women in the rural areas to work from home and look after their own children and the orphans in the community. In addition, Thanda Zulu donates all proceeds of its beaded jewelry, wood, and fabric items to Thanda After-School, a non-profit organization that empowers orphans of AIDS and other vulnerable children through skills development, lessons, and activities after school. Thanda After-School works to create long-term changes, with a focus on entrepreneurship, poverty alleviation, and HIV/AIDS prevention. Thanda Zulu products are both innovative and alluring - join us for the opportunity to support a good cause while creating sustainable change!

ATTENTION WOMEN OF WPC: Our next Friday evening gathering will take place November 6, at 7:30 PM at the home of Linda Rost. Our time together will focus on a "women helping women" mission project to create and ship care packages to female soldiers serving in Iraq and Afghanistan, and we'll also spend time in conversation about some of the common experiences we may share with those women, like sacrifice, loneliness, fear, courage, having a job that takes you far from home and children, and coping as a woman in a traditionally male-dominated environment. In advance of the gathering, participants are asked to shop for or collect care package items from a shopping list created in response to four specific service women (copies of the shopping list are available on the bulletin board outside of DSF Jane Field's office). Please RSVP to Linda Rost (lrost0411@yahoo.com, 438-7795) or to Jane Field (janefield@snet.net, 762-5514) no later than Wednesday, November 4, if you plan to attend.

You're invited to GET REAL! That's the name of a new group meeting the first Tuesday of every month (November 3), 7:30 – 8:00 AM (that's right A.M.!) in the Lounge to learn more about the intersection of Christian ethics and contemporary life. The first speaker will be WPC's own Kit Smith, speaking about energy use issues. Those who are able can stay after his 20-minute presentation for a lively Q&A exchange, but for those who need to catch a train or get on the road to work, you're guaranteed to be out the door by 8am. No need to sign up—come when you can and leave when you must. We hope to see you there!
